Meet the Head Coach

Chad Gassman begins his fourth summer as head coach of the Hyannis Harbor Hawks. In 2011, Chad was named the CCBL Mike Curran Manager of the Year, after leading the Harbor Hawks to the Western Division Championship. The team lead the league for the entire season with a 29-15 record.

In August 2011, Gassman was named the new head baseball coach at the University of Pikeville in Pikeville, Kentucky. Prior to that, he spent five seasons as head coach of the NAIA Waldorf College in Forest City, Iowa.

Coach Gassman is a 2000 graduate of Morehead State University, where he also played on the baseball team. He began his coaching career at Olivet Nazarene University in Illinois after receiving his master's degree there. While at Olivet, Gassman coached Ben Zobrist, who now plays for the Tampa Bay Rays. He also coached the Tigers as they earned back-to-back NAIA World Series appearances and won two Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference titles.

After his tenure at Olivet, Chad coached at Young Harris College in Young Harris, Ga.,

and served as an associate scout for the Florida Marlins. While at Young Harris, Gassman coached Charlie Blackman who was a second round pick of the Colorado Rockies, and Cory Gearrin, who was a third round pick of the Atlanta Braves. He has also been a coach and an instructor with Athletes in Action, the Chicago White Sox Training Academy, and Notre Dame Baseball Camps.

Chad and his wife, Shannon, have a daughter, Taylor, and two sons, Easton and Nate.
